

Music on Mondays

Excellence at the heart of Luton

This concert is one of 20 fortnightly events being offered by Luton Music in its 2022 programme running from March until December.

Full details can be found on our website - www.lutonmusic.org.ukQR code

Petroc Trelawny, our president, comments... 'It's always exciting to visit Luton Music - I'm delighted to be supporting this new season of concerts.'

16th May - 7:45pm St. Mary's Church, Luton - Doors open 7:15pm

Simon Callaghan (piano), Karel Bredenhorst (cello)

Ludwig van Beethoven – Sonata in D Op 102 No.2
Gabriel Fauré – Selection of short pieces
I. Après un rêve Op 7 No.1
II. Sérénade Op 98
III. Romance Op 69
IV. Papillon Op 77

Claude Debussy – Sonata
Ludwig van Beethoven – Sonata in A Op 69

Tickets - Adult £16, £10 concessions (reg'd students/unemployed/disabled), under 18yo in full-time education free. Tickets are available on the door.

All events will be presented in accordance with government health and safety guidelines, as this advice develops.

The next four Music on Monday concerts are :

30 May Fidelio Trio - St. Mary's Church, Luton

13 June A Tale of Two Violas - St. Mary's Church, Luton

27 June Andrew & Daniel Zolinsky (piano) - St. Mary's Church, Luton

11 July Barbican Quartet - St. Mary's Church, Luton

All concerts start at 7:45pm - doors open at 7:15pm