

Music on Mondays

Excellence at the heart of Luton

This concert is one of 20 fortnightly events being offered by Luton Music in its 2022 programme running from March until December.

Full details can be found on our website - www.lutonmusic.org.uk .....QR code

Petroc Trelawny, our president, comments... 'It's always exciting to visit Luton Music - I'm delighted to be supporting this new season of concerts.'

13th June - 7:45pm St. Mary's Church, Luton - Doors open 7:15pm

A Tale of Two Violas

Peter Mallinson & Matthias Wiesner

Evgenia Startseva

Johann Sebastian Bach – Sonata in G minor

John Alexander – a pale blue dot

Raymond Yiu – 3 Shidaiku Transcriptions

Edwin Roxburgh – Sonata for Three

Frank Bridge – Lament & Caprice

Edward Elgar – Wild Bears

Tickets - Adult £16, £10 concessions (reg'd students/unemployed/disabled), under 18yo in full-time education free. Tickets are available on the door.

All events will be presented in accordance with government health and safety guidelines, as this advice develops.

The next four Music on Monday concerts are :

27 June Andrew & Daniel Zolinsky (piano) - St. Mary's Church, Luton

11 July Barbican Quartet - St. Mary's Church, Luton

25 July Music of the Late Baroque - St. Augustine's Church, Luton

8 Aug Roelof Temmingh - St. Mary's Church, Luton

All concerts start at 7:45pm - doors open at 7:15pm