

Music on Mondays

Excellence at the heart of Luton

This concert is one of 20 fortnightly events being offered by Luton Music in its 2022 programme running from March until December.

Full details can be found on our website - www.lutonmusic.org.ukQR code

Petroc Trelawny, our president, comments... 'It's always exciting to visit Luton Music - I'm delighted to be supporting this new season of concerts.'

17th Oct - 7:45pm St. Mary's Church, Luton - Doors open 7:15pm

Ben Goldscheider, Callum Smart & Richard Uttley

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart – Horn Quintet K407 (arr. for horn trio)

Dame Ethel Smyth – Trio for violin, horn and piano

Clara Schumann – Three Romances for Violin and Piano Op 22

Johannes Brahms – Horn Trio Op 40

Tickets - Adult £16, £10 concessions (reg'd students/unemployed/disabled), under 18yo in full-time education free. Tickets are available on the door.

All events will be presented in accordance with government health and safety guidelines, as this advice develops.

The next four Music on Monday concerts are :

31 Oct Sarah Saviet (violin)& Joseph Houston (piano) - Sixth Form College, Luton

14 Nov Rufus Frowde (organ) & Anthony Brown (saxophone) - St. Mary's Church, Luton

28 Nov Haffner Ensemble - St. Mary's Church, Luton

12 Dec Berkeley Ensemble & Simon Callaghan - St. Mary's Church, Luton

All concerts start at 7:45pm - doors open at 7:15pm