

Music on Mondays

Excellence at the heart of Luton

This concert is one of 20 fortnightly events being offered by Luton Music in its 2022 programme running from March until December.

Full details can be found on our website - www.lutonmusic.org.uk .....QR code

Petroc Trelawny, our president, comments... 'It's always exciting to visit Luton Music - I'm delighted to be supporting this new season of concerts.'

31st Oct - 7:45pm Sixth Form College, Luton - Doors open 7:15pm

Sarah Saviet (violin) & Joseph Houston (piano)

Claude Debussy – Sonata for Violin and Piano
Béla Bartók – Sonata No.2 for Violin and Piano

Olivier Messiaen – Theme and Variations
Cassandra Miller – for mira
Claude Debussy – L'isle joyeuse
Maurice Ravel – Tzigane

Tickets - Adult £16, £10 concessions (reg'd students/unemployed/disabled), under 18yo in full-time education free. Tickets are available on the door.

All events will be presented in accordance with government health and safety guidelines, as this advice develops.

The next three Music on Monday concerts are :

- 14 Nov Rufus Frowde (organ) & Anthony Brown (saxophone) - St. Mary's Church, Luton
- 28 Nov Haffner Ensemble - St. Mary's Church, Luton
- 12 Dec Berkeley Ensemble & Simon Callaghan - St. Mary's Church, Luton

All concerts start at 7:45pm - doors open at 7:15pm