

Music on Mondays

Excellence at the heart of Luton

This concert is one of 20 fortnightly events being offered by Luton Music in its 2022 programme running from March until December.

Full details can be found on our website - www.lutonmusic.org.ukQR code

Petroc Trelawny, our president, comments... 'It's always exciting to visit Luton Music - I'm delighted to be supporting this new season of concerts.'

11th July - 7:45pm St. Mary's Church, Luton - Doors open 7:15pm

The Barbican Quartet

Amarins Wierdsma – violin
Kate Maloney – violin
Christoph Slenczka – viola
Yoanna Prodanova – cello

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart – Quartet No.21 in D K575

György Ligeti – Quartet No.1 Métamorphoses nocturnes

Johannes Brahms – Quartet No.2 in A minor

Tickets - Adult £16, £10 concessions (reg'd students/unemployed/disabled), under 18yo in full-time education free. Tickets are available on the door.

All events will be presented in accordance with government health and safety guidelines, as this advice develops.

The next four Music on Monday concerts are :

- 25 July Music of the Late Baroque - St. Augustine's Church, Luton
- 8 Aug Roelof Temmingh - St. Mary's Church, Luton
- 22 Aug Bedfordshire Youth Opera - St. Mary's Church, Luton
- 5 Sept Carducci Quartet - St. Augustine's Church, Luton

All concerts start at 7:45pm - doors open at 7:15pm